

The Phantom Ghost has come to call, but was not seen
To haunt you happily from now through Halloween.

The Phantom has left some goodies for one and all.
And was delivered by a friend who also answered his call.

The spirit of the neighborhood has come to wish you well.
Someone, somewhere, selected you to receive this happy spell.

It's now your turn to have some fun,
To play the Phantom for someone.

Copy this message and leave a treat,
At two neighbors' houses along the street.

You must display the Phantom on your door so all can spy
That you're already haunted by this happy haunting guy.

You have 24 hours so don't delay,
Or the Phantom's curse will come your way.

Fix two sacks with goodies like the one given to you.
Ring someone's bell and leave a bag to make them happy too.

Go — in secret, therefore you won't be seen,
Continue this tradition until Halloween.

Remember: post this message on your door,
So the Phantom won't haunt you anymore.....Maybe.....
